1 (By agreement of counsel, the sealing, filing, and certification are waived; and all objections, except as to the form of the question, are reserved until the time of trial.)  7 VICTORIA EVANOFF, after having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:  11 12 BY MR. LUONGO: 13 Q. Good morning, Ms. Evanoff. My name is Michael Luongo. I'm with the law firm of Goldberg Segalla, and I represent Defendants, Marsh USA and Therese Perrette in this action.  First, we'll take breaks as needed.  So if you need to stop at any time, just let me know and we'll try to accommodate that.  Where are you currently located for this deposition?  A. Like what room in my home?	Q. Well, you said your home. So that's what I'm trying to get at. Are you at your home right now?  A. Yes.  Q. Is there anyone else present with you?  A. I'm by myself.  Q. You're testifying under oath today.  Do you understand that your testimony has the same effect as if we were in court?  A. Yes.  Q. I have a few instructions for you.  Please allow me to finish my question before you begin your answer even if you know where I'm going with my question.  That way it makes it easy for the court reporter to transcribe everything that we're saying. It becomes difficult if we're talking over one another. Is that understood?  A. Yes.  Q. Also please make sure to give me verbal responses. Gestures won't come through in a written transcript. Okay?

But I didn't live in this home then, so it was a little bit different. There's much more responsibility in a home than there is in an apartment. So I have many more responsibilities now than I used to. Q. Does Mr. Deblasi help at all with activities or household chores? A. No. Q. Is there a reason why not? A. He's not here most of the time. Q. Go ahead. A. He just sleeps here, really. Q. Do you have a mortgage on the house? A. Yes. Q. Does Mr. Deblasi pay towards the mortgage? A. No. Q. Is Mr. Deblasi working? A. Yes. Q. So he's on the mortgage, but he's not paying towards the mortgage? A. Correct. He has never paid towards the mortgage. Q. Is that something you asked to do and he declined? A. No. He most of the time has not lived here. Q. Approximately how large was the apartment that you had with John Evanoff in 2020? A. As far as square foot? Q. Well, first just describe it generally. Was it a one-bedroom or a studio? A. No. It was a two-bedroom apartment. It had a living room, a dining room, a kitchen, a hallway, two bedrooms, a full bathroom and a half bath.
23 24	A. I'm not certain of his job title. He works for Keurig Dr. Pepper.		Q. And do you know approximately what the square footage was?
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	A. I'm not certain, no. Q. And what about the house that you are currently living in, how many bedrooms, bathrooms and size? A. It's a four-bedroom, one and a half bath home. It has a living room, dining room, kitchen, mudroom. That's it. I don't know square footage. Q. Does anyone else in your current residence assist with household chores? A. No. My dad will sometimes do the dishes. He does his own laundry. But he doesn't help me with my children or anything like that. I do all the cooking, cleaning, all of those things. My father is elderly. Q. Does your father make any financial contributions to you? A. No. Q. Is he receiving Social Security? A. Yes. But he keeps that for himself. Q. What are your current sources of income? A. My current that would be I get	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	approximately $613 for workers' compensation from Sedgwick, and then I get Social Security, approximately $1,700 a month in Social Security, one of the checks, and then another one for $1,700. So $3,200 in Social Security and then $613 for workers' compensation.  Q. Do you know why you get two Social Security checks?  A. One of their survivor benefits. So one of them is until G is until 16.  He was 5 when the incident occurred. So one of them is more so because he was so young, I believe, so that one is for more for me. And then the other one is until he graduates until he's 18 or graduates high school.  Q. Are you saying that both of those Social Security checks are expected to end when G is at age 16 and 18?  A. One of them ends when he is 16, one of them ends when he is 18. So I will not be receiving any Social Security at all by the age of 18, his age of 18.

Q. Above the line for dependent/guardian/personal representative's signature, is that your signature? A. Yes. Q. And then going back to the first page of this document, which has a Bates stamp of East Penn 405, it has a title, Agreement For Compensation For Death. Do you see that? A. Yes. Q. And it refers to an injury date of March 3rd excuse me, March 6th, 2021. Do you see that? A. Yes. Q. And that relates to the accident involving John Evanoff, correct? A. Yes. Q. On the second page, it states a weekly rate of $613.76. Do you see that? A. Yes.	A. Yes.  Q. You mentioned before that there was some inconsistency in the payments. Can you tell me a little bit more about that?  A. Yes. So I don't remember the exact months that it was occurring or weeks that it was occurring. But several times, they had missed payments or they were late or they were on the wrong day. And this happened several times since I have been receiving them. So, yeah.  Q. Are they currently I'm sorry.  Were you finished?  A. Yes.  Q. Are they currently making these payments on schedule?  A. Yes. Now they are.  Q. And have they paid you for any previous missed checks?  A. Not recently. But they have done that before.

Q. Did you engage counsel in connection with a workers' compensation claim relating to John Evanoff? A. As far as did I have a lawyer? Q. Yes. A. Yes. Q. Who was that lawyer? A. The initial lawyer that I used for setting up benefits, his name is John Koucher, Kucher. Q. Okay. A. I did not contact him. John's sisters did that for me. And then I spoke with him. So it was all Q. Were you introduced to him before the workers' compensation payments started to be made? A. Do you mean did I speak to him as far as setting up the benefits and things of that nature before I started receiving them? Q. I am just trying to determine the sequence. Did you start receiving benefits before meeting with this attorney or did	you meet with him after  A. He set the benefits up.  Q. I see.  A. Yeah. I didn't know how to go through the paperwork and all of those things.  Q. And did this attorney assist you in making a claim against East Penn when payments were not being made on schedule?  A. Yes. He is one of, yes.  Q. You said, "one of." Were there other attorneys that assisted you relating to a workers' compensation claim against East Penn?  A. Gabrielle.  Q. You are referring to your attorney here today, Gabrielle Weiss?  A. Yes. When they were late. She did not assist in setting them up, though.  Q. And when they were late with payments, how was that resolved? Was there an agreement of any type?  A. I don't remember what the what the thing was called legally. I just know

Do you feel like he gained weight over the time that you met him or was he always a large man, as you describe him? A. Yeah. Because I met him when he w 19, and then he became a grown man as I v with him. We were together a very long time. Well, to me what is a long time. Q. Would it be fair to say that maybe the 2015 to 2021 time period, he was approximately 230 to 240 pounds? A. Yes. Q. Did he have any doctors other than a primary care physician? A. A dentist. But I don't remember where or who that was either. It was a small business. Q. Did he have any hospitalizations that you can recall?	1 reason. 2 A. Did you and John Evanoff have a social circle of friends, or did you mostly spend time together between the two of you?  A. I don't have many friends myself.  We shared most of our friends. He did have some friends that I didn't really know, more so associates, I guess. John was very popular in high school. I was more of an introvert. So he had many, many, I guess you could call them acquaintances more so than friends. But our close-knit friends circle were our friends. We were with each other constantly.

know it was we had to talk about some emotional issues, so I appreciate that. Thank you. THE WITNESS: Thank you.  BY MS. WEISS: Q. I just have a few questions for you. Do you recall today talking about whether Mr. Deblasi contributed financially towards the home that you currently live in?  A. Yes. Q. Does Mr. Deblasi contribute to any of the utilities, water, trash, sewer, electric or gas?  A. No. Does he pay anything towards the taxes on the house? A. No. Q. Does he pay you any type of rent? A. No. Does he pay any type of child support? A. No. MS. WEISS: I have no further questions. Thank you, Victoria.	BY MR. LUONGO:  Q. I have a couple follow-up. On the child support, is that something that you've requested him to assist with?  A. I did request it, yes. I did not follow through.  Q. What was his response on contributing to all these things, the utilities, the taxes, rent and the child support?  A. I didn't I never really asked him for any money to stay here. I want him to be able to save his money so that he can live on his own at some point. So he's just been saving money so that he can get his own place separate from this home.  Q. I apologize if I asked this earlier.  But what is he currently doing for work?  A. I'm not certain of his job title.  He works in a factory, Keurig Dr. Pepper.  MR. LUONGO: That's right.  Okay. Thank you, Ms. Evanoff.  (Deposition concluded at 12:03 p.m.)
